

REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE SERIES

FALL 2022

What is reproductive justice?

Reproductive Justice 101

in the HUB Cultural Center

9/27

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Join us and learn more about the framework of reproductive justice created by women of color to address our human right to:

- (1) be able to not have children
- (2) have children
- (3) parent children in health and safety

Learning From Las Libres

in Student Center Ballroom B

10/25

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Las Libres is a feminist organization whose primary mission is to promote and defend women's human rights in Mexico and beyond. We will be showing a short film "Accompaniment" that features the work of Las Libres in supporting women as they make reproductive decisions.

JANE: AN ABORTION SERVICE

in Ives Hall 101

11/09

5:00 - 6:40 PM

Join us for a showing and discussion of "Jane: An Abortion Service."

This fascinating political look at a little-known chapter in women's history tells the story of "Jane," the Chicago-based women's health group who performed nearly 12,000 safe illegal abortions between 1969 and 1973 with no formal medical training.

CA Latinas for RJ

via Zoom, email mullera@sonoma.edu

11/16

9:00 - 10:30 AM

Come and learn about the local organization: California Latinas for Reproductive Justice. CLRJ recognizes that the reproductive health and rights of Latinx people cannot be viewed in isolation, and that their access to culturally and linguistically appropriate health care, a living wage, freedom from discrimination and violence, and many other issues have a profound effect on Latinas' reproductive and sexual health, as well as their right to self-determination in all aspects of life.
